Eligibility of Competitors

The Championship is open to men and women, amateur golfers as defined by the current Rules of Amateur Status. All competitors must be members of a golf club or national federation/union/association.

All competitors must be 25 years old or over on day 1 of the Championship.

Handicap limits

- Men 8.5 or better
- Women 10.0 or better

The committee has the right at any time to require a player to provide proof of his or her handicap.

Form of play - Cut

The Championship shall comprise of 54 holes of stroke play over 2 days. The first two rounds are played on Saturday, the remaining round on Sunday. There will be a cut after 36 holes. The 39 best scores of the men's field (and all ties) and the 12 best scores of the women's field (and all ties) will qualify for the last round on Sunday.

Number of Competitors

72 (51 men and 21 women)

If the number of entries exceeds 21 women and/or 51 men, places in the starting fields will be decided by handicap.

Note: the committee reserves the right to limit the number of competitors from any country in the final starting lists and to allow Swiss Golf to rank their registered players for both the reserves and starting lists.

Draw – Starting List

Women and men form distinct groups. For the first round, the draw is done in 3 groups:

- Group 1: Amateurs with lower handicaps
- Group 2: Amateurs with higher handicaps
- Group 3: Women

For the first two rounds, the draw is made for the whole day with simultaneous starts on tees # 1 and # 10. The groups remain unchanged, except that the players who start at tee 1 in the morning will start at tee 10 in the afternoon and vice versa, so that the competitors will start once at tee 1 and once at tee 10.

For the last round, the players will be placed according to their result, the best starting last.

The starting list will be published at the latest two days before the championship at 2 pm.

Withdrawal – No Show

Any player wishing to withdraw from the championship must inform Swiss Golf or the host club before the draw. Entry fees will not be refunded for no-shows. The Swiss Golf Disciplinary Committee may sanction players who contravene repeatedly.

Bad Weather

If either the first or second round is cancelled due to bad weather, the cut will be determined based on the only round played.

Tees

Championship tees (Back Tees).

Title

The winner shall be the Swiss Golf Open Champion 25+ Men/Women. The best ranked woman and man of Swiss nationality shall be the Swiss Golf National Champion Stroke Play 25+ Women/Men

Ties
